

Wilston State School Fete

Terms and Conditions

Purchase of ride tickets and attending the Wilston State School Fete confirms that as a parent/carer of children you will adhere to the terms and conditions of attending events at Wilston State School including the waiver of liability.

Children must be supervised by a parent/guardian at all times.

You understand that the child/yourself are participating in this Event voluntarily and you understand and appreciate the dangers and risks inherent to the Event, including but not limited to equipment failure; mechanical malfunction; the potential to fall from the ride; the potential for collisions with objects, people; slips and falls; physical exertion; inclement weather.

You further understand that Wilston State School P&C Association, including the individuals acting on its behalf, cannot and does not assume responsibility for such events or personal injuries arising there, even if such injury or damage is a result of the negligence of the Wilston State School P&C Association or other parties released.

You are aware of your own and your own child's personal medical needs and state that there are no health-related reasons or problems that preclude or restrict their ability to participate safely in the Event.

You assume all risk and responsibility for their/your medical needs and understand and agree that if they/you must be hospitalised or otherwise receive medical care; Wilston State School P&C Association does not assume legal responsibility for payment of such costs.

You accept that the Operators decision is always Final.

By going on rides, you are doing so at your own risk and no actions, claims or suits can be made against the establishment, employer, performer, employee, volunteer or owner or event organiser.
